

NOW IS THE TIME.
Today is the time for laughter;
Tomorrow the time for tears;
Whatever may come hereafter,
Whatever of we with years;
Today is the time to borrow
The best that the gods can give.
We can sorrow, if need be, tomorrow,
But today is the time to live!

"FRUIT OF THE LOOM."

Men and women of taste and judgment go into ecstasies over the wonderful patterns, textures and colors which are "the fruit of the loom." But there is one fruit of the loom they rarely consider, and that is the frail and faded woman, old before her time, because necessity compels her to work under conditions, which send her more favored sister to bed and the doctor's care.

The diseases which weaken and torment women, may in almost all cases be cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

"I had female trouble for eight years," writes Mrs. L. J. Dennis, of 828 East College Street, Jacksonville, Fla. "Words cannot express what I suffered. I sought relief among the medical profession and found none. Friends urged me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. When I commenced taking this medicine I weighed ninety-five pounds. Now I weigh one hundred and fifty-six pounds—more than I ever weighed before. I was so bad I would lie from day to day and long for death to come and relieve my suffering. I had internal inflammation, a disagreeable drain, breaking-down pain, and such distress every month, but now I never have a pain—do all my own work and am a strong and healthy woman."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used with "Favorite Prescription" whenever a laxative is required.

NARROW ESCAPE

Mr. J. L. Nicholson Falls Under Wheels of C. and O. Train

Yesterday evening in attempting to board the 5:05 Eastbound train at the foot of Market street Mr. J. Leland Nicholson missed his footing and fell between the wheels of the slowly moving train.

Had it not been for the eagle eye of the careful and watchful Engineer who was peering out the cab window and witnessed the incident, and brought the engine to dead halt, there would have been a headless corpse arrived at Vanceburg instead of a live but badly frightened man. It is self-evident that a person boarding a car can't afford to make the attempt while carrying packages on both shoulders, as is said to have been the case with Mr. Nicholson.

MYSTERIOUS FIRE

W. R. Smith & Co.'s Store Scene of Lively Times Yesterday.

Yesterday about 10:30 fire was discovered in the rear of the cellar of the building occupied by W. R. Smith & Co. as a boot and shoe store.

The fire evidently had been burning for some time and when discovered by Mr. Smith, who was standing in his front door talking to Miss Agnes Moran, a clerk in the store. At the time he noticed a blaze issuing through the trap door leading to the cellar at the rear of the room and almost at the foot of the stairs leading to the second story. It was but a minute until the room was filled with smoke and the blaze reaching the ceiling.

The fire had increased to such proportions as to cut off the exit of Arthur Beasley and Joe Lowry who were engaged at the time in the third story. In order to escape from the building they were compelled to leap from the second story window to an awning and thence to the pavement.

For a time the incidents, excitement and scenes about the premises were exciting and thrilling, but fortunately without casualties.

The origin of the fire is a mystery to the proprietors, and the most plausible theory is that it was caused by combustion.

The prompt and ever faithful service of the volunteer fire companies saved the property owners of the block from a most disastrous conflagration and personal loss. So to our fire-fighters we tip our chapeaus.

The damage from fire, smoke and water will reach between $600 and $800, with full insurance.

MR. TRAXEL:
In behalf of my wife and myself I desire to thank you for having invented a device that will prevent range explosions. We believe were it not for your Safety Device that our range would have been blown up and our lives endangered. Shortly after the fire was started in the range steam and water began blowing out of the Safety Appliance, indicating that pipes were frozen and water could not circulate in the pipes, consequently steam and pressure were accumulating only to be relieved as fast as it could accumulate by the Safety Appliance.

SENATOR COX'S BILL

Asks An Appropriation For Kentucky Exhibits at St. Louis Fair

After the Kentucky Senate organized for business Tuesday, Senator William H. Cox of this city, who was the champion of the St. Louis Exposition Appropriation Bill, defeated at the session of 1902, offered a bill to appropriate $65,000 for Kentucky's exhibits at the Exposition.

The bill provides a commission of five, appointed by the Governor to handle the fund, but Senator Cox says it will be amended to allow the Kentucky Exhibit Association to act as a commission.

Senator Byron of Bracken county on Tuesday also offered his bill to provide for the electrocution of condemned criminals within the walls of the Frankfort Penitentiary instead of their being hanged at county seats.

Dislocated Her Shoulder.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Fergus Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep which she had not done for several days. The son was so much pleased with the relief it gave his mother that he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

The Louisville Herald voices the sentiments of every loyal son and well-wisher of Kentucky when it says the message of Governor BECKHAM, while it takes a rosy view of what has been done in some departments of the state Government, is distinctly an excellent document in its practical recommendations. The General Assembly will be wise if it meets those suggestions in earnest good faith and seeks to take the steps forward recommended in nearly every case.

The appropriations for a new Capitol and for the St. Louis Exposition are urgently demanded by intelligent public opinion all over the state. In the latter case private effort has already accomplished much, but there is a great deal that the state only can and should do.
It was due to Kentucky that freedom of the Mississippi was gained for Western commerce and thus paved the way for the Louisiana Purchase. By all means Kentucky should be adequately represented at St. Louis.

As to a new Capitol, it is a necessity that is rapidly growing to be a sore spot on the state's pride. With plenty of funds on hand to build it, there can be no excuse if the Assembly should fail to meet the demands of the time.
It is to be hoped that provision will be made to preserve and restore the old Capitol and convert it into a state museum or library. It is a historical relic of enduring interest, but as a Statehouse it is a disgrace and utterly inadequate. It is time for Kentucky to set the seal of permanence on Frankfort and provide a fitting home for the state's dignity.

The recommendation for a school-book law will be agreed to by all sides. Uniform books at minimum prices will save many thousands of dollars to people who can least afford to pay for frequent changes at the highest prices.
It is not to be denied, however, that there are opportunities for graft in the forming of a law that should be carefully guarded against.

Governor BECKHAM has unquestionably accepted wise advice or initiated excellent views when he urges reform in the laws governing expenditures for the care of pauper idiots and criminal prosecutions. The abuses that have existed under both departments of expense are many and costly. In three years the cost of maintaining pauper idiots at their homes has increased from $123,000 to $156,000 per annum, while criminal prosecutions paid for by the state are one of the heaviest drains on the Treasury. The Governor suggests that in every case the county be made to bear its share of both expenses, for the obvious reason that it will throw more safeguards around claims made under each head. Kentucky cannot too soon make a start to place responsibility directly upon the counties. It will encourage better county government, and will be the first step in making counties preserve better order at their own expense by feeling the necessity of limiting their expenditures. As it is now, the burden is thrown on the state with an easy conscience, and it is nobody's business to check abuses.

The Deering Campground Association has changed the name of the corporation to The Parks Hill Assembly, and meetings in future will be conducted on the Assembly plan—monologues, lectures, both humorous and instructive, with the best musical talent obtainable. President Roosevelt, in his annual message, stated that for the last fiscal year there had been 25,566 persons appointed through competitive examinations under Civil Service rules. This was 12,672 more than for any previous year, and forty per cent. of all who passed the examinations. There will be a Postoffice examination in this city the first Wednesday or Saturday after May 1. There will be examinations in several places in this state for Railway Mail Clerks, Stenographers, and many other positions during March and April. What's in a Name?

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

LINENS THAT LAST!

are the kinds you should get FIRST---and this Linen Store makes it delightfully easy. Every week brings recruits to my superb stock---linens that are ALL LINENS to begin with, and of every grade for every household purpose. Whether all be simple for daily use, or elaborate for state occasions, depends upon you---we're ready to meet any demand. Today of Fancy Linens.

LUNCHEON CLOTHS.

A few hand embroidered Hungarian table covers in two colors blue. Damask Luncheon Cloths or table covers, border designs with plain or figured center, edges neatly hemstitched, full 36 inches square, a half dozen qualities between 75c and $2.

CARVERS, and TRAY COVERS.

Heavy linen prettily hemstitched, 18x27 inches 25c. Same size, finer linen, double row of hemstitching 35c. Double damask carving cloths 20x30, "shower of hail" center, Greek border hemstitched, 50c.

TOWELS---HUCKABACK.

Some Huckabacks for lively business. The first purchase of the season on the strength of prices that justified changing big quantities. We depend on the values---for the price---to move the lot quickly. Great big 18x36 inch huckabacks for 10c. A bigger and better for 12c. A wonder for 15c, and a can't-be-equalled towel for 19c. These prices are like showing frames to sell a picture. It is the towels you must see---the size, texture, weight, weave---before you can appreciate their merits, and the money saving in prices quoted.

BY THE POUND.

Don't often quote prices, by weight, in a drygoods store. Do you know anything about Whiting's paper? Yes? Then we need say no more beyond the bold statement we are selling it now, in white or blue, for 25c a pound. Match envelopes 10c package. If you don't know Whiting's paper, this is the acceptable time for an introduction.

WINSOME WAISTINGS.

Isn't a waist that combines style, daintiness, comfort and economy, the essence of satisfaction? All this---and more---you'll find in a waist made from the fleeced piques we are selling at half price. White striped with fast color reds, blues, and pinks. They are as warm as flannel, wash like linen and wear like iron. 25c yd. instead of 50c.

Handsome damasse vestings that have been selling for 50c, 69c, 75c now 39c yd. Large assortment of patterns.

REMNANTS.

If we let short ends accumulate in any stock we'd soon be swamped with short ends. There is always a big collection after the heavy fall selling. To weed them out we've marked them at prices a third to a half less than regular.

Remnants in silk, colored and black wool fabrics, table linen, ribbons, laces, embroideries, outings, percales, bleached and unbleached cottons, shirtings and white waistings.

YOUR MONEY BACK.

Don't forget your change. You get back a quarter on the dollar when you buy a pair of our reduced corsets. Nothing wrong with the models either. Two lines on which we're overcrowded, that's all. Several different styles in each line, so all figures are certain of something to fit. A good many $1 1/2 models are in the lot but the $1 grades predominate. Another line of 75c corsets, one model, three sizes 22, 23, 24, now 39c.

TOWELS---TURKISH.

Just the kind for a glowing rub down on cold mornings. Empty promises have no part in this towel program. These are facts. For 12c. Big hemmed bleached Turkish towels, 18x40 inches. For 15c. Heavy unbleached hemmed Turkish towels 22x45 inches.

TOWELS---DAMASK.

25c towels! Sounds like a tame statement. Compare value and price. It will clinch all argument. Snow white damask towels of silky flax, bordered and fringed, or hemstitched.

LINENS for EMBROIDERY.

Fine Irish linen stamped for embroidery. Center piece size, floral designs with scalloped edge. Were 50c and 75c. Now 25c.

FANCY LINENS.

Golf Gloves---Black, white, mixtures. 35c were 50c. 25c were 35c. 15c were 25c.

SOME VELVETS.

Why Not Begin the New Year BY BUYING SHOES AT Dan Cohen's Great Western Shoe Store?

When you feel your feet so comfortably clad, and realize how heavy your purse still is, you will feel new "swap" and "go," heart lighter, head clearer and in your heart only pity for the "other fellow," who is still shambling around in his old shoes, with his head down and his courage at an ebb---proportionately low. Do your best to make it so, and let us help you, and the New Year Will Be Happy.
